Prayer & Fasting Guide

Thur, 29 Feb – Fri, 1 Mar 2024

Thursday morning

29 February

PRAY FOR:

Contentment in Christ in our abundance or need

Invitation to come before God

“Oh, fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack!”

Psalm 34:9

Behold our God—his majesty, glory, might, and power. Prepare yourself to encounter the Almighty God who sustains His people.

Meditation

“Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good!

Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!”

Psalm 34:8

- » Reflect on God’s goodness towards you, his provision and protection.
- » What might be hindering you from ‘tasting’ or ‘seeing’ that God is good? Are there difficulties or challenges you are currently facing? Are there other things you are finding refuge in instead?
- » Invite the Holy Spirit to help you ‘taste’ and ‘see’ that the Lord is good, and that blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.

Confession

“Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me?”

Psalm 42:11

- » Reflect on your previous meditations—on things that are getting in the way of you experiencing God’s goodness and refuge.
- » In light of this, invite the Holy Spirit to identify areas of your life that you need to look to God for instead, and to find refuge in Him.
- » Confess these to God.

Assurance

“Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need.”

Philippians 4:11-12

- » Give thanks to God, who gives us the means to be content in whatever situation we find ourselves in, knowing that it is Christ Himself who has and will continue to strengthen us.

Prayer

» For yourself

To taste and see that the Lord is good and to find your contentment in Christ.

» For others

For those around us who have not yet put their faith in Jesus. Pray that God would help them see that their dissatisfaction and lack of contentment point to their need for Jesus.

» For the church

That we would be thankful for what God has done in our midst, amongst our people, ministries, and activities, and that we would continue to look to Him to sustain and strengthen us for what lies ahead.

Closing

"I can do all things through him who strengthens me."

Philippians 4:13

A decorative border surrounds the central text. The top border features a row of various green leaves and small white flowers. The bottom border features a row of green leaves and small white flowers. The left and right sides of the border are composed of vertical green leaves. The background is a light beige color with a subtle texture.

PRAY FOR:

Contentment in Christ in our abundance or need

Invitation to come before God

*“O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you,
as in a dry and weary land where there is no water. So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory.
Because your steadfast love is better than life,
my lips will praise you.”*

Psalm 61:1-3

Look to our God whom we seek, thirst, and long for.
Look to Him in His power and glory. And praise Him because His steadfast love is better than life.

Meditation

“For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake”

Philippians 1:29

- » As a Christian entrusted with the good news of Jesus, what comfort can you take in, knowing that it is for the sake of Christ and the proclamation of His gospel that you can endure suffering?
- » Invite the Holy Spirit to help you see that suffering for the sake of Christ is something you can endure through Him who strengthens you.
- » Consider the churches around the world, who are enduring suffering and persecution for the sake of the gospel. How might God be prompting you to intercede for them?

Confession

“For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.”

Psalm 32:3

- » Are there sufferings in your life that you are escaping from or trying to endure apart from Christ?
- » Confess them to God, and invite the Holy Spirit to minister to you according to the riches of His grace.

Assurance

“And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:19

Prayer

» For yourself

Call upon the Holy Spirit to lay hold of the riches that you have in Christ, that even in suffering, you may be assured of His steadfast love.

» For others

For our families, friends, and colleagues who are suffering, that the gospel of Christ would be a beacon of hope in which they can put their trust in.

» For the church

Pray for our Resound churches in India and Japan, that in their hardships and sufferings, God would continue to supply for them their every need according to the riches they have in Christ.

Closing

“To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.”

Friday morning

1 March

PRAY FOR:

Us to be assured how deeply
God loves us and how the giving of our lives is an outworking of that love

Invitation to come before God

“No one is good except God alone.”

Mark 10:18b

Look upon the goodness of our God and proclaim that there is no one like our God.

Meditation

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.”

John 3:16

- » Do you believe God loves you?
- » How do you live your life in the reality of God’s love towards you?
- » Reflect on God’s love towards us, towards you—a love that resulted in the giving of Himself. A love so great that it overcame death itself. A love that nothing can separate you from. A love which is yours, now and for all eternity.
- » How does this love move you towards loving those around you? To steward your possessions and wealth to love others?

Confession

“Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.”

Mark 10:22

- » The rich young ruler, having great possessions, could not bring himself to give them up to follow Jesus. What are the possessions in your life that hinder you from following Christ? How might this be also reflected in your struggle to love those around you?
 - » What does this say about your understanding and relationship with your possessions?
 - » What does this say about your understanding and relationship with God?
- » Confess this to God, and ask Him to show you that in Him you lack no good thing, being assured He will never leave nor forsake you.

Assurance

“Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, “I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Hebrews 13:5

Prayer

» For yourself

To be assured of God's love towards us—that out of the abundance we have in Christ, we are empowered to use our God-given possessions to love others in His name.

» For others

That God would dethrone the love of money that grips us and many around us. And in so doing, many would come to realise the surpassing worth of knowing Christ.

» For the church

We would be generous, ready to engage and minister to those in need, and be assured of our treasures in Him.

Closing

“And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, “You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.”

Mark 10:21

Friday afternoon

1 March

PRAY FOR:

Us to be assured how deeply
God loves us and how the giving of our lives is an
outworking of that love

Invitation to come before God

“By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.”

1 John 3:16

Be in awe of this love that we have received in Christ. Acknowledge that Christ’s love is working in us, to love those around us.

Meditation

“But godliness with contentment is great gain, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs.”

1 Timothy 6:6-10

» Have you experienced the “gain” of godliness with contentment in your own life? Reflect on why.

- When were some times you experienced godly contentment?
- When were some times you found yourself to be discontent or dissatisfied?
- Invite the Holy Spirit to speak into your heart as you reflect on these experiences.

» How have you seen the love of money as being a root of all kinds of evils? Is this something that you have struggled with? How can God and His Word speak into this?

Confession

“And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, “Then who can be saved?”

Mark 10:26

- » We are helpless to save ourselves. Confess your need for God, and ask Him to work in you to overcome your struggle with sin—the love of money, discontentment, or whatever may be hindering your love towards God and others.
- » Be assured, that salvation, whilst impossible for man, is only possible with God.

Assurance

“Jesus looked at them and said, “With man it is impossible, but not with God.

For all things are possible with God.”

Mark 10:27

Prayer

» For yourself

Give thanks to God for doing what we could not—saving us from our sinful selves. Pray that our love for Him would grow with each passing day and that the things of this world would grow strangely dim as we continue to look at His wonderful face.

» For others

For those who have wandered from the faith—pray that God in His mercy would help them see and experience the ever-satisfying love of Christ.

» For the church

That the love of Christ, and our reward with Him in heaven, would compel us to go about the work of the Gospel:

Closing

“Jesus said, ‘Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first.’”

What is Fasting?

Fasting is the act of depriving ourselves of some or all of the good gifts that God gives us which can easily replace him as first in our lives. Fasting demonstrates that we don't live by bread alone and that we seek him before all other things. It is not a hunger strike, or an attempt to arm twist God into getting what we desire. Rather, it is turning our desires towards God, recognising we need him more than anything physical.

When God is supreme over even the hunger in our hearts then he is truly supreme in everything. Psalm 73:25-26 says: "Whom have I in heaven but you, and there is nothing on earth I desire but you. My flesh and my heart may fail but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever". When we fast, we are saying, I want God more than all of these things.

How do we fast?

Fasting is traditionally denying oneself of food to pray during meal times or whenever we feel the hunger from our lack of food. There are water fasts, liquid fasts, or fasts where other kinds of food are abstained from. Let us fast in a meaningful way, where we deny ourselves of something that is important in our regular diet which will remind us to pray. One way to supplement fasting of food is to also refrain from various forms of technology and/or social media.

The kind of fast that each person chooses to undergo should be done without any coercion from others, and done with a clear conscience before God. Those with medical conditions are advised to consult with a doctor before undergoing any fast. To prepare for this fast, let us ask God for his Spirit to begin to soften your heart and the hearts of all at RHC.
