Why Christianity Sermon Series

Join us for the two Sundays in August as we explore the beauty of the Christian faith. This is a wonderful opportunity to invite friends who don't know Jesus, and get better equipped to give a reason for the hope we have in Jesus.

19 August – Meaning: What difference does Christianity make?
26 August – Bible: Why trust the Bible?

Truths that Make us Sing

Q50: What is God's will for us in the third commandment?

That we neither blaspheme nor misuse the name of God, but rather that we use the holy name of God only with reverence and awe, so that we may properly confess him, pray to him and praise him in everything we do and say.

Q51: What is God's will for us in the fourth commandment?

That we daily rest in Christ and gather weekly with his people for corporate worship, and so anticipate the eternal sabbath.

Recommended songs

Your Name – Paul Baloché

We Sing – Joel Sczebel, Pat Sczebel & Todd Twining

Answers in a Post-Truth World

1 September (Sat), 10.00am-12.00pm, Oriental Plaza Auditorium, Level 3

Why bother with God if I'm happy? Does science negate the evidence for God? Is Christianity applicable in the modern world? If you have questions like these, come join us at an open forum with a time of Q&A. Lunch will be provided after the event.

Max Jeganathan is a Senior Apologist with RZIM (Ravi Zacharias International Ministries) and speaks at churches, businesses, universities, and various public events.

Jacob Martin is a PhD researcher at the University of Cambridge. He co-founded New Zealand Christians in Science, which focuses on the intersection of faith and science.

RSVP to follow next week.

Discovering Christianity Series – New Class!

Sundays from 14 September – 19 October, 8.00pm-9.30pm, Holland Village

The Discovering Christianity series has 6 sessions where we will go through various books in the Bible, looking at the fundamentals of Christianity. The first of this series will begin on 14 September. If you or someone you know wants to know more about Christianity, email elliotpang193@gmail.com.
